AN ACT

For the relief of William L. Cameron, Junior.

William L.
Cameron, Jr.

31 USC 240
note.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Army is authorized and directed to receive, consider, and if found meritorious, to pay the claim of William L. Cameron, Junior, of Fountain, Colorado, for the destruction of his 1968 Ford Falcon automobile on or about August 29, 1970, when it was set on fire while parked at the headquarters parking lot at the United States Army Post at Baumholder, Germany, as if that claim was cognizable under the Military Personnel and Civilian Employees' Claims Act of 1964, as amended (78 Stat. 767, as amended); and in the consideration of the claim under that Act, the said William L. Cameron, Junior, shall be held and considered to be a person eligible to be compensated under the Act.

Approved January 2, 1975.
